Multigenerational Travel Africa

Multigenerational travel is all the rage! At Ntaba, we love going on family adventures and creating lasting memories. We also really enjoy creating holidays for clients who want to travel with their family - a holiday that will keep the grandparents happy and the (grand) children entertained and educated.

Well, our go to destination for such a trip is South Africa. South Africa truly has something for everyone and not only that, the experiences which you may think are geared towards adults such as wine tasting actually have an educational twist to benefit the children (fresh grape juice for the kids).

We recently wrote an article discussing why South Africa is a must visit destination for the entire family!

South Africa: For all the Family

2019 October Highlights of South Africa, Victoria Falls & Chobe

In October, of this year, we have an incredible trip lined up, taking you to three of southern Africa's most-loved destinations. The trip will see you embark on a safari in South Africa, visit Cape Town, view the incredible Victoria Falls and finish with a safari in Chobe, Botswana

This is definitely a trip you can do with the entire family. If the dates don't work or you'd like to change aspects of the trip we tailor safaris to exact requirements. Check out the trip below!
