South Africa received multiple World Travel Awards in 2023 - and with good reason! The coveted recognitions - the Oscars of Travel Awards - affirm yet again why travel to Africa has leapt to the top of many travelers wish lists.

- Africa's Leading Airport - Cape Town International Airport
- Africa's Leading City Destination - Cape Town

- Africa's Leading Cruise Port - Cape Town
- Africa's Leading Luxury Train - The Blue Train
- ..... and many more

According to Forbes*, these are the Top 5 Reasons Africa is the new 'It Travel Destination'

- 1. EASIER AIR CONNECTIVITY: Direct flights are now offered from the US by United & Delta and intra-Africa connectivity has increased and rapidly becoming more streamlined.
- 2. 'SHOW TRAVEL' HAS BECOME A TREND: Thanks to binge-watching favorite shows and travel documentaries during the pandemic, travelers are now eager to explore more adventurous destinations - also known as the 'Netflix Effect'.
- 3. NEW HOTELS THAT CREATE BUZZ: Eco-friendly accommodations, elegant 1920's-style Safari Lodges, and luxurious wine-farm stays are just a few that locations making ripples in the industry.
- 4. SUSTAINABILITY & GIVING BACK REMAIN KEY: Data from a World Travel & Tourism Council (WTTC) and Trip.com Group report confirm the sentiment showing that nearly two-thirds of travelers are looking for sustainability efforts when they travel.
- 5. YOUNGER TRAVELERS WITH BIGGER BUDGETS: World Travel Market Africa's latest trend report cited that by 2026, almost two thirds of all travel spend will be from Millennials and Gen Z travelers.
